This articulation is based on the following agreements:

- A. SUNY Delhi will provide financial aid support to matriculated students who qualify for financial aid.
- B. Interested students must submit a SUNY Transfer application for admission online and send (all) official college transcripts as required by the Admissions Office.
- C. SUNY Delhi advisors will assume responsibility for advising students who are covered by this agreement.
- D. The Dean of the School of Business and Hospitality Management, Dr. David Brower and Associate Director of Admissions, Misty Fields will be the designated contact persons and coordinators of this agreement for SUNY Delhi. Doug Gaulin will be the designated contact person for SUNY Adirondack. Both parties agree to act as agents responsible for implementing this agreement, identifying and incorporating any changes into subsequent agreements, communicate changes to prospective faculty members, advisors, counselors, and others to whom the information is pertinent.
- E. Should either party desire to terminate this ARTICULATION AGREEMENT, notification shall be given to the other party in writing not less than six (6) months prior to the proposed date of termination.
- F. SUNY Delhi will supply SUNY Adirondack with promotional and informational literature, which will be used to assist students, faculty, and staff.

Reverse Transfer:

Whenever possible, SUNY Delhi will encourage students under this agreement, who have transferred from Adirondack Community College without a degree, to attempt to complete the previous degree program. Reverse transfer allows the student to transfer any credits earned at SUNY Delhi back to Adirondack Community College, to satisfy Adirondack Community College degree requirements for awarding an Associate's degree.
